

JUDE BOWLER

MC Actor/Writer/Filmmaker, Jude Bowler, has a chequered performance history ranging from radio to physical theatre to drama and even drag. Following her 2001 short film, 'In Bed With Waylene' in which she played 4 characters, Jude toured her live show to Alice Springs in March 2002, has had sell-out Christmas shows, 'Jude's Jingle Berries', in Sydney in 2002 and 2003 and is currently developing her next production for a theatre season 2005. Jude is also working on her next short film 'Desperately Seeking OPAL'.

Jude has performed as Host/MC, both as herself and in character, sharing the stage with people such as Marcia Hines, Judith Lucy, Paul Capsis and UK character comedienne, Chris Green (aka Tina C. - www.tinac.net - with whom Jude works regularly & performed with at the 2003 Melbourne Comedy Festival & Sydney's Enmore Theatre). Amongst her various bookings, Jude was the popular Resident Host at Sydney Festival's RED Stoli Bar 1998-2001.

CLIENTS

Sydney Festival, The Side-On Café, Pride, The Producers Pty Ltd, Queer Screen Seymour Centre, Capital Promotions, Gay Games 2002, Sydney Gay & Lesbian Mardi Gras, Two de Force, RAS Easter Show, Casting Couch Productions, Andrew Birley Events

EVENTS

Awards Ceremonies, Media/Product Launches, Festival Bars, Trivia Nights, Theatrical Debates, Independent Arts/Music Nights, Cabaret, Dance Parties, Private Parties

